NOTICE.

The subscriber intending to remove from this place in a short time, requests all those indebted to him by bond, note or open account, to come forward & settle them up to first of January 1817.

He will dispose of the Houses & Lots he now occupies, and possession given on the 15th October next. The dwelling house is calculated for the accommodation of a family, with all the necessary out houses, and a very productive garden, subject to a small ground rent—the stand for retailing goods, or purchase of produce, is inferior to none in town.

It is deemed unnecessary to give a more minute description, as it is presumed those wishing to purchase will view the premises.

He will also sell a quarter acre Lot and Dwelling House thereon, near the court house.

The above property will be disposed of on accommodating terms to those wishing to purchase.

Land for Sale.

A tract or parcel of Land, containing between two and three hundred acres on the north side of Occoquan, in Fairfax county, about 5 miles west of Occoquan mills. It is well watered with never failing springs, it is also well timbered, and the great quantity of fur timber on it renders it the more valuable to any person in the cooperating line. This land is of the middle soil, and produces corn, wheat or any other grain tolerable well—there is about 100 acres cleared and under good fence. The improvements are a good dwelling house and other out houses, and a good apple orchard of about sixty trees.

ALSO,

One other tract in the same county, within three miles of Occoquan, lying on Sandy Run, containing 47 acres—one half in cultivation and under good fence, the remainder heavily timbered. There are on the premises an old framed dwelling house and out houses and an apple orchard of eighty bearing trees.

Any person inclining to purchase can view the premises and know the terms by applying to the subscriber who lives near them.

FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale his ESTABLISHMENT on the north side of Cameron street, situated at the centre of the square between the Bank of Alexandria and the City Tavern—Consisting of a three story Brick House with two stories in the rear, the whole covered with slate and running in one range of buildings from the front 117 feet 6 inches. The house contains 12 rooms (beside the store and cellars) 10 of them with fire places, some of them spacious and elegant, and few less than 15 by 18 feet in the clear, except one closet room; one front and two back stairways, a kitchen with two fire places, with stove for cooking, over which are servants' rooms, adjoining a pantry, smoke house and other necessary back buildings.

In front a portico, in the rear a covered way with piazzas to the extreme end of the buildings.

The cellars are large, floored, and fitted up in the neatest manner, equal, if not superior to any in the district; the store over which is finished in the best style, and has been occupied for a length of time past as a fancy store, consisting of China, Delft, Glass and Hard Ware—etc. etc.—The cellars as a Wine, Grocery and Sedit Store, etc.

The purchaser can have the goods on hand, which comprise a good assortment and have been carefully selected, at cost.

On the house, so far, there has been expended and paid upwards of 12,000 dollars. Nearly 16 feet of the lot in front remains to be built on.

The buildings are insured and nearly complete in every particular, and on examination will be found to be an establishment equalled by few here or elsewhere.

About two thirds of the amount for house goods, etc. would be required in hand, or in approved notes at short date, —on the remainder a long credit will be given.

He would wish, also, to sell, on a credit, or would barter for Goods, or Property in the district; two squares of 12 acres each, in the town of Jefferson, Ohio; both squares join in with the public square, on which has been erected the market house, court house, jail, etc.
The squares are divided into half squares by 33 feet alleys, and to each half square there is attached 3 acres of land immediately adjoining the town, as town farms, and to each square the remainder of 100 acres further distant. This settlement is in a flourishing state, being the county and post town, situated on the river Grand, a short distance from Lake Erie the soil rich and of first rate quality.

Should he not be able to effect the sales above stated in a short time, on liberal and fair terms, he would have no objection to take a Partner in Trade, who, putting in one third or one half interest he holds in the concern, would share a proportionable part of the profit in assisting to conduct the business.

William Dunlap

N. B. Arrangements might be made to accommodate a Partner with the whole of the dwelling house if necessary

Traits of Democracy.

No. IV.

Presidential power and patronage was a fruitful theme of declamation for every democratic office seeker in and out of congress, while the government was in federal hands. Loud and vociferous were the complaints on this subject. They feign would have made the people believe that this power and patronage which the federalists were endeavouring to vest in the executive department, was calculated to absorb the powers of the Legislature, and eventually destroy all the rights and privileges of the people—that the state governments were to be consolidated, and the whole brought under a monarchy.

What has experience taught us, since the government has fallen into democratic hands?—Have not these declamations at various times attempted, and in several instances have actually vested, their favourite presidents with discretionary powers, far beyond any thing of the kind before attempted, even so far as to make and suspend laws at his pleasure—and the heads of the departments, who are the immediate servants of the president, have been frequently authorized to exercise powers and to make rules and regulations, which have had the effect of laws, subversive of the dearest rights & interests of the people?

The patronage of the president has been within the last fifteen years, enlarged and extended to a degree far beyond any former example.
New offices have been created, with beautiful salaries annexed and the powers of old ones enlarged to an alarming degree, until this patronage has become unbounded. The post office department only will now be particularly noticed. The number of post masters have been increased since Mr. Jefferson was first elected from about three hundred to nearly fifteen hundred—until they are so numerous in some parts of the country, as to be public nuisances, instead of public convenience. These petty officers, with their numerous connections and particular friends, are a powerful phalanx, in the support of presidential influence—and are most of them, mere puppets & tools of their master's servants. More influence and more intrigues are carried on through this department than in that of any other.

To enumerate an hundredth part of the complaints and ill-founded clamours, which these office-keepers were constantly raising, and spreading abroad, against the measures of the administration, while in the hands of federal men, would be a disgusting task, and swell the catalogue to an unbounded size. Their conduct since they came into office, is the best & only test of their sincerity.
If the honest, candid part of the community, would look back into the history of federal times, and consider the professions of these leading democrats and compare them with their practices, since they have gained their object in possessing the government, it would be a useful employment, and serve to convince a very honest mind, of the danger of entrusting their public interests, and their liberties, in the hands of men who flatter them with their lips, while their hearts are far from them, and cover their practices with deception, that so they may receive their reward.

Mr. George Crowninshield's Yacht.

In addition to what has already been published respecting this splendid vessel, the editors of the N. Y.
Gazette have been favored with the following description, taken by a person who visited her.

"This Yacht is 205 tons, a perfect model of beauty in architecture.
The after cabin for masters, mates, and secretaries, is 16 by 14 feet in the clear; next forward is the dining room, 22 feet by 19 in the clear, which is finished with mahogany & bird's eye maple, with a richly ornamented top or crown; six inches below which is an Eagle's head, holding a cornucopia, gilded & burnished, in its mouth—then a mahogany framed door of three feet wide, with bird's eye mahogany panels, and so alternately through the room, in the centre bar of each door is a mirror, as well as in the sides of the room. The top of the room is white ornamented with four strings of gilded bead work to each curling, all handsomely varnished. Over the dining room and after cabin is a light extending from within three feet of the mainmast to within three feet of the rudder head. In the dining room are four lockers or buffets, filled with plate and cut glass. The remainder of the side rooms are closets and sleeping births. In this room are two sofas, superior, in elegance to any in this country, being framed with mahogany, birds eye maple and brass, and trimmed with crimson silk velvet, gold lace and fringe, together with twelve elegant chandeliers in the centre. At each end is a large and elegant mirror supported by a cornucopia of burnished gilt. The doors leading into the after cabin from the dining room are mirrors, so that Mr. C. and his companions may be entirely separate from the officers, there being a passage way from the deck to the after cabin independent of that which leads to the dining room. The dining room officers' room, passage ways, state rooms, and stairs leading to the dining room, are covered with elegant Brussels carpeting, the colours of which correspond with the finishing and furnishing the room. Next on the larboard side is Mr. Crowninshield's sleeping room which is eleven feet square; in which is an elegant full bed with appropriate furniture; and then his baggage room of similar size. On the starboard side forward of the dining room is the steward's room and china closet next the captain's state room, store rooms, &c.—then comes the kitchen, which is twenty feet square, combining every possible convenience, having in it one of Mr. Youle's patent cambooses, &c. Next forward is the forecastle, in which the crew mess and sleep, where is also a school room for the tuition of those who may wish instruction.

The head of this elegant yacht is a beautiful female figure; and the stern is richly ornamented with earved work, etc.

A concise History of the late war between England and America.

When I was a Lad of twelve years old I was frequently insulted by a boy of fifteen. He being both older and stronger than myself, I was rather backward in coming to fists, though I was conscious that my superior "spunk" and activity would set me equal with my bully, if it came to the "ultima ratio regum" that is, to battle. At last I could no longer bear his insults, and I gave the first blow.
There we had it, Pull hair! Gouge eyes! Fists in the stomach, and then under the short ribs; till we both were breathless, powerless—We had just strength enough to rise to part and look at each other. Says he at last! Did I not tell you, I could whip you? You cannot, says I.
This fist whip'd you, sir? That is false, returned he: I am stronger than you!—That is no such thing," answered I. "I am stronger than you? And now the battle would have been resumed with redoubled fury had it not been for the knots on our heads, the pangs in our eyes and sides; and chiefly for want of breath to second another rally. My antagonist at last forced a smile upon his face reached out his hand to me and said, "Don't let us be fools! To fight for nothing!" We are both stronger."

ALEXANDRIA.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

February 14.

The bill for indemnifying certain sufferers on the Niagara frontier for the losses sustained by them during the war, and which has occupied so many days in the Representatives, was yesterday ordered to be laid upon the table, or in other words completely dismissed from the consideration of Congress.

A Bill making the various necessary appropriations for the year 1815, was, for the greater part of the day, under consideration of the house in committee. The blanks being all figured, the committee room and reported the bill to the house. The only opposition that was made was to a miserable pittance of compensation to a clerk who was called in to assist the clerk of the commissioner, under the bill to indemnify sufferers by the war. After an effort which might have been applied to extinguish a grant of millions, the compensation seemed so just and reasonable, that it was voted.

For the Alexandria Gazette.

I am not satisfied with you, Mr. Snowden, at this interesting period, outside of our election for town council. You think you might lead a Congress of their dongs, and bestow your time and labor in enlightening your fellow citizens in their local affairs. Is it a small thing, Mr. Snowden, that the men who with our confidence last year, by electing them to the council, should have de-sisted and brought a Hard Times us? You must have heard with confidence salaries have been paid to the mayor, police officer, auditor, clerk, and even the town printer, and yet say nothing. You certainly don't sound their measures. Is it nothing to your mayor and superintendent of police a year not quite as much as the disolved clerk or runner in the banks get, or such a clerk in a store receives to quander one or two thousand dollars, poor house and still have poor to support, to waste the public money in buying an unbecomingly and unbecomingly for the public convenience; to have a council who will pass laws for the suppressing signing, public intoxication, lawless conduct in the streets; and the bargain to have a mayor who will execute these laws, even upon gentlemen. "Is it hard times?" we cannot game, get drunk, and go out the street uttering in a loud voice what we please, however profane and obscene it may be.
"Hard Times" has told you all this the Herald of Monday last, in his No. 2, but all he says there is a mere trifling what his Nos. 2 and 3 will develop.
For the benefit of the town you might as republished this valuable little work.
Are the editors of the Herald the sole guardians of the purse and liberties of the town? Considering that "Hard Times" and myself contribute very little to these expenditures (except now and then in rather an unpleasant way) we might not have said any thing about subject of profusion. But many other sails are the result. Money must be raised by every expedient. Our natu-propensity to indulge all our feelings is overlaid. Now a days a gentleman will not amuse himself with an innocent game at faro, loo, all fours, &c. &c. but a public house within the limits of the corporation, without the necessary requirements before his honor the mayor can be fined, or made to give security that he shall not be a gentleman. It is no longer down such tyranny. "Hard Times" Robin Hood, a great many gentlemen and myself, can speak feelingly on this subject.

Send the towns. Mr. Editor: let meetings be held every ward, and let measures be adopted, to bring the town or council, together and all. I will furnish you with a list of names who fill all vacancies. We shall all the more under our own eyes and figures and none to make us drink.

ALEXANDRIA.
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15.
FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT
AT WASHINGTON.
February 14.

The bill for indemnifying certain sufferers on the Niagara frontier for the losses sustained by them during the war, and which has occupied so many days in the R-presentatives, was yesterday ordered to be laid upon the table, or in other words completely dismissed from the consideration of Congress.

A Bill making the various necessary appropriations for the year 1817, was, for the greater part of the day under consideration of the house in committee. The blanks being all filled, the committee rose and reported the bill to the house. The only opposition that was made was to a miserable pittance of compensation to a clerk who was called in to assist the clerk of the commissioner, under the bill to indemnify sufferers by the war. After an effort which might have been applied to extinguish a grant of millions, the compensation seemed so just and reasonable, that it was voted.

I am not satisfied with you, Mr. Snowden, at this interesting period, on the eve of our election for town council. Thanks you might leave Congress and their dangle, and bestow your time and labor in enlightening your fellow citizens in their local affairs. Is it a small thing, Mr. Snowden, that the men we honor with our confidence last year, by electing them to the council, should have disappointed us and brought a hard time on us? You must have heard with what unanimous salaries have been poured in the mayor, police officer, auditor, clerk, and even the town printer, and yet say nothing. You certainly don't suspect their measures. Is it nothing to elect your mayor and superior assistant of justice a year not quite as much as the discount clerk or runner in the banks get, or such as a clerk in a store receives to squander one or two thousand dollars in a poor house and still be a poor to support to waste the public money in building an unwholesome and unuseful house for the public convenience; to have a council who will pass laws for the suppressing of gaming, public intoxication, loose and disorderly conduct in the streets; and the bargain to have a mayor who will execute these laws, even upon gentlemen. "This is hard time," we cannot game, get drunk, and go about the streets uttering in a loud voice what we please, however obscene and obscene it may be. "Hard Times" has told you all this in the Herald of Monday last, in his No. 1, but all he says there is a mere trifle to what his Nos. 2 and 3 will develop. For the benefit of the town you might have published this valuable little essay. Are the editors of the Herald the sole guardians of the purse and liberties of the town? But many other evils are the result. Money must be raised by every expedient. Our natural propensity to indulge all our feelings is invited. Now a days a gentleman cannot amuse himself with an innocent game at faro, loo, all fours, three up, &c. at a public house within the limits of the corporation, without the hazard of being carried before his honor the mayor and fined, or made to give security that he shall not be a gentleman. It is time to put down such tyranny. "Hard Times" Robin Hood, a great many gentlemen and myself, can speak feelingly on this subject.

Should the town, Mr. Editor, let meetings be held every ward; let measures be adopted, counting the mayor, council, constables and all. I can furnish you with a list of three spirits to fill all vacancies. We shall all have to case under our own coat and fig tree, and none to make us shiver.

Price of Flour in Jamaica
A letter from a respectable mercantile house in Kingston, Jamaica, to their correspondent in this city, dated 18th of January, quotes flour at $25 per barrel, and adds that it had not been higher than that price—Phil. paper.

LATEST FROM BORDEAUX.
A commercial friend has politely favored us with the following extract of a letter from a respectable source dated "Bordeaux, 30th Nov. 1816.

The crops of grain in the North of France, in the Netherlands and Germany, have been short, and although they have been good in the South of this country, prices have rapidly risen. Wheat is at this day 38s a 40f. rye 25s a 29f; Indian corn 26s a 28f per about 165 a 170 lbs your weight; superfine flour 68s a 70f per 100 lbs. your weight. It is expected that prices will go higher, and that in March and April, provisions will be very short; shipments of wheat and flour from America to Europe, for a market any turn out well.

Cotons, in expectation of your new crop proving abundant, are not so brisk as they have been: Upland Carolina and Georgia, 200 a 215f; Louisiana 210 a 225f; sea island 910 a 115f.

Rice is in great request 55 a 60f, none at market in first hands.

Potash 68 a 70f, bees wax 180 a 190f, snake root 200 a 225f, Tobacco 120 a 135f.

Coffees have advanced, ordinary 85 a 90f, greens 110 a 125f.

Clayed sugars 60f a 70f, whites 85 a 105f, pepper 100 a 105f; B A hides 87 a 92f; Bankens 5 a 5f 50 short; long do 9f a 10f.

The vintage has totally failed; very little wine has been made and the quality is so poor that it will not keep and must be consumed in the course of the year; Bankens, in consequence, have advanced 68 a 70f, per about 190 gallons yr. 4th proof.

Exchange on London, 23f. 13 a 25—100f.

Extracts of Letters from N. A. S.

"On our arrival at Naples, the government expected nothing else than an attack. Transports were sent for additional forces, which returned full of troops, conveyed by a 74 and some frigates. Yet the people seemed to like us very much, for the first boat that went ashore was received by a great crowd, crying 'buozza, bona americana!'"

"Our ship answers our expectations; she sails remarkably well, and is very stiff. There are several English and Dutch 74s and 80s here; the Washington looks like a picture among them."

"While we lay at Messina, the Princess of Wales arrived there in a merchant ship from Egypt. Our commanders all went to pay their respects and capt. Perry serenaded her with his band. She was compelled to leave the place without going on shore, as the ship could not obtain pratique."

"There was considerable disturbance at the theatre last evening, on account of some American citizens not taking their hats off when they played 'God save the King.' Our officers that were present all rose and took off their hats, on which the music struck up 'Hail Columbia,' when all the company in the house rose and took off their hats, which was highly honorable to both parties."

"Last evening gov Don gave a ball to the officers of the American and Dutch fleet and on Thursday next Lady Don gives a ball to the officers of the United States ship Washington."

MADISON BARRACKS.

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the Al. Argus, dated Sackett's Harbor, Jan. 10 1817.

The fine stone barracks which were built here last year, having been completed so far as to fit them for the reception of the troops, the officers, at this post, desirous to pay a compliment to our worthy president, determined to give to the new barracks the name of Madison Barracks. Accordingly on the 8th inst. the anniversary of the memorable battle of New Orleans, they received this name, under a federal salute from the artillery under captain Heintzen, and a detachment from the 2d infantry, under Lieut. Col. Leavenworth, Major Gen. Brown, col. Brady, captain Woolsey, &c. attended the ceremony. Thus while our military at Detroit have been advantageously employed in constructing a military road, those at this place, particularly the 2d infantry, have been as usefully engaged in constructing the finest range of barracks in the United States, capable of accommodating 3000 men on the war establishment.

BALTIMORE, Feb 12.
By the arrival at Annapolis, from Curacao, we learn that the Patrol Fleet of 1816 and six schooners under Adm. Boscawen, with Gen. Boscawen, passed Annapolis on the 4th January. There had been late actions on the Maine; it was expected an engagement would soon take place near Carraccas, as the Royalists were stated to have gone out from there to meet the Republicans.

THE BIBLE.

Go, holy book—
Tell those who many woes assail, On thee to look:
They'll find how weak it is to wait, Though every earthly comfort fail.

he lone man tell:
The poor lone, wretched, friendless man, Though his heart swell,
The ways of God he must not scan,
But trust the universal plan.

Say thou to that Shut out from every good on earth:
Lost to repose:
Baptiz'd in sorrow at their birth,
That worldly joys of little worth.

Tell the Pilgrim,
When sorrows are howling o'er his head
'Tis good for him:
What tho' his thorax torn feet have bled,
The heart's blood of his God was shed.

The Orphan's tear Go wide away, and bid his heart
To be of cheer:
Heal thou his bosom's sorest smart,
And gild with hope misfortune's dart.

Tell those who pine
In the damp dungeon's dreary gloom, There yet may shine Through their dark dungeon's gloom
A light to guide their footsteps home.

CHESS.

Two Persians had engaged in such deep play, that the whole fortune of one of them was gained by his opponent. He who played the White was the ruined man, and made desperate by his loss, offered his favorite wife as his last stake. She, from a window above, viewing the game, called out to him to concede his castle and preserve her life.

SITUATION OF THE GAME.

(White to play.)
THE PERIL OF GAMBUSTERS.
Where the stream of Sophocles Winds along the silent vale, We see the Palms trees softly murmur Waving to the gentle gale.

By the ivy laden windows Of an old romantic seat Sat at Chess two noble Persians, Sheltered from the scorching heat.

Here with beating heart, Alcazor, Viewed the deep eventful play;
Here with bla over arching eye brow Sat the Caliph Mohamed Bey.

Now with weary eye, the Persian Marks each passion of the heart;
And the gallant Alcazor Yields a victim to his art.

Soon his ancient stores of treasure, Shon his wealth and wide domain;
Soon the gleamings of his father Faintly cratty Caliph's gain.

Now he mad as the lion Raging thro' the desert grove; Now with desperate oath he pledges Zaida's beauty, Zaida's love.

Mehmed Bey the offer seizes, Triumph glitters in his eyes: Ah! rash youth, that thou hadst never, Dare'd to risk so fair a prize!

For impending ruin threatens To devote thy hapless love, But what pleasing accents issue From the lattice'd heights above?

'Tis the beautiful Zaida crying, Halt distracted, O my life?
To thy foe concede thy Castle And preserve from death thy Wife."

Merchants Hall, Boston, Feb 9.—Moon.

Messrs Lang, Turner & Co.
Since writing you yesterday, I have conversed with a passenger in the Natchez Belle, Morris, (late Surget, who remained at New Orleans) arrived at Newport 7th inst. She sailed from the City 8th January, and left brigs Sally, for N York next day; Jane, Curtis, for Boston in 3 days; Orleans, Jones, for do. in a few days; Admittance, Weston, waiting for freight; New Orleans Packet, Pratt, for Boston, uncertain; Neptune, Place, from Havana, discharging; brig Tippon, Saib, Wyer, Marcellis, discharging. Inside of the bar, 9th January, a schooner of 6 from New Bedford, bound up. Sailed from Balize 10th in co. with the U. S. brig Tom Bowline, on a cruise. Left a ship from Boston, just arrived; and ship Com. Patterson, of Baltimore, from Bordeaux, just arrived.

Passengers in the Natchez Belle: Lt. Spencer, Thomas Shields, purser, both of the navy, Dr. Slocum, of N. H.; Mr. Bell, of Kentucky; Mr. Philpot, of Philad; and Joseph Woodward, of Boston Spoke nothing. A day or two before sailing, a person went on board every vessel at N. Orleans, to ascertain the amount of tonnage then in the place. The result was as follows: ships, 16863 brigs, 17234 schooners, 2043—total, 36139. There was about 37 sail in the river, bound up, not calculated in the above, which, added to that amount, it was supposed, would make from 40,000 to 45,000 tons of shipping. Freight was very low, and all kinds of Northern produce very plenty and still sale; cotton 25 cents sales made the 8th at that price.

Since writing yesterday, I have received the following from a correspondent:

Wind N. E. and a snow storm.
Arrived this morning, brig Pomona, Hedge, 54 days from New Orleans, sugar, molasses and cotton. Left at the city, Jan. 4, among others, brigs Margaret and Sarah, Killen, waiting freight; Goddard, Witherell, discharging; Tasker, Cook, waiting freight; Golden Grove, Packard, from Boston, just arrived; Ventura, Atwell, doing nothing; Victory, Teach, two miles below the city. The schooner Morgiana, Sampson, sailed this morning for Vera Cruz. Met on the 8th January, ships Parnassus, of New Bedford; Argonaut, of Newburyport; Hannan of Portsmouth; 7th, brig Harriet, from Boston; 9th, brig, do. do. 3 days from New York; scho. Ardant, 10 days from Balize, 10th, in co. with brig Columbia, Elkins, for Havre. Spoke nothing.

Spanish Consulate.

The port of Vera Cruz being now open to the importation of every species of provisions in every class of vessels belonging to powers at states friendly or neutral, as officially communicated to me by his excellency the governor of that place, under date 23d October 1816, I have the satisfaction to announce to this public said permission, with a view that it may also reach the knowledge of merchants in other states. The conditions on which the above commerce is admissible are as follow:

That, without any alteration in the duties which have been paid on the introduction of other provisions hitherto, the article of flour is subject to that of forty one reales (5 dollars 12 and half cents) silver money; & that its duration is for the space of six months, which notwithstanding will continue six months after the declaration of the suspension of the said foreign traffic.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,
Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.
A FRESH SUPPLY
Of the following genuine Medicines.
For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places, can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature, speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms and from obstructions or looseness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy what ever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is found offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and most efficacious that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebra, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small may-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes, privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of choler—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the lives of thousands of our citizens.

It likewise the mildest and most remedy known, and has restored health and strength a great number of persons in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, asthma, palsy, lumbago, numbness, whit swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural, insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet it reflects the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, or any other destructive intemperance, the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at certain period of life, bad living in, &c.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.
Sovereign remedy for Colds, Asthma, Coughs, Asthmas, sore throats, and approaching Consumptions, and all disorders of the breast and lungs.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature, weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered, which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Glycerine for the Teeth.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.
For the cure of agues, remittent, and intermittent fevers.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing each performance by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

Notice.

The public are hereby informed that a company has been formed under the title of THE QUANTICO WAREHOUSE COMPANY. It has erected, one mile below the town of Dumfries, a large and convenient Warehouse on Quantico creek for the storage of flour, grain, etc. which warehouse will be ready for the reception of produce on Monday the third of February. The trustees of said Company have appointed Zebulon Kankey their Agent to attend the said Warehouse, to receive produce on storage and grant receipts therefor. And for the prompt delivery of all articles received in the said warehouse by their agent. (Bills alone excepted) the Company hold themselves bound. All persons depositing flour, grain, etc. must pay, before taken away, the following storage, viz. For each barrel of flour 2 cents; if it remains in said warehouse one month 8 cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. For each bushel of wheat or other grain two cents; if it remains over one month three cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. And for all articles of merchandise a reasonable storage only will be demanded. Persons storing flour may have it inspected, or not, at their option. If not inspected, the agent's receipt will specify the brand and the state of the barrels. The weight of one bushel wheat, running measure of each load or parcel of wheat. All articles stored, the same to be returned to the owner when called for, be it flour, wheat, other grain, etc. Customary allowances for wastage, etc. excepted.

Quantico Warehouse is situated on Quantico Creek, only two miles from its junction with the Potomac river, at all times navigable for lighters. There are belonging to this creek a sufficient number of lighters to ensure a brisk transportation down the creek of all articles stored. Vessels may be got to take produce to the district of Columbia, Baltimore, Norfolk, or elsewhere. The present freights are—To the district twelve and half cents per barrel of flour, and to Baltimore and Norfolk 25 cents from the mouth of Quantico. The proximity of this warehouse to a large extent of country, added to the goodness of the roads leading to it from the westward, being little inferior to paved ones. It being bound by actual survey little more than 5 miles from Hay Market to Dumfries, will, it is confidently believed by the trustees, by this route greatly lessen the expense of transportation of produce to the district of Columbia, and they pledge themselves to the public to use every means within their power to give satisfaction.
